Good morning Mike, the date and time that we have for the conference call is 3/24/2020 at 9:00 am. Can you provide us with a conference call number that we can call. Also, EPA will be on the conference call. Thanks.

Hi Mike, I just received today the hard copy of the Weston & Sampson attachment referenced below in your March 11 email - cover letter dated March 11, 2020 and plan - re "Schedule Submitted as Required in Notices of Violation NOVWSPCB019-001 dated October 31, 2019 (the PCB NOV), NOVWSWDS2001 dated January 6, 2020 (the Solid Waste NOV #1); and NOVWSWDS2006 dated February 27, 2020 (the "Solid Waste NOV#2 and, together with Solid Waste NOV#1, the "Solid Waste NOVs"). Town of Fairfield Aggregate Reclamation Yard".

Unfortunately, this week will be problematic for a conference call. The department is moving to teleworking over the next few days and will need time for everyone to collect and organize their work and make that transition. I can have Maritza, my administrative assistant, look to reserve two sets of dates so that we can keep this moving – one late in the week of the 23rd (when the dust should be settling) and a 2nd date, the week of the 30th (backup in case something prevents the 1st one). In the interim, we'll start reviewing the plan.

Final 3-11-2020 - Aggregate Reclamation Yard Investigation Work Plan.pdf
2020.03.11 W&S Aggregate Reclamation Yard Schedule Letter (FINAL).pdf

Dear Yvonne:

I attach the schedule submittal in response to the above-referenced Notices of Violation, along with a link to Weston & Sampson's Environmental Site Work Plan. Hard copies will follow. These materials incorporate the helpful input of DEEP and EPA staff during our February 27, 2020 meeting. In light of the Town's previously-stated interest of commencing the investigation work promptly, we would like to schedule a call with DEEP and EPA to review the Environmental Site Work Plan and answer any questions relating to same on March 18, 19 or 20. Kindly advise of DEEP/EPA availability for a telecon, and we will coordinate scheduling.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Regards,
Mike
